

Nomination form Josephine Nefkens Prijs

- 1. Nominee's area of expertise

- 2. Nominee's personal details (please attach nominee's CV (including university education, academic/research appointments to date, awards and grants, and publications))

Name:

Organization:

- 3. Qualitative information on nominee (describe briefly the achievements of the nominee in relation to the following indicators:)
 - a. The nominee's unique contribution to cancer research (breakthroughs or innovation impacting cancer care and/or research). Maximum of 300 words

- b. The nominee's international reputation in cancer research (include a list of memberships of international professional committees and/or societies, editorships, prizes and awards etc in the past 10 years).

4. Quantitative information on the nominee

- a. Title of five most important journal or book publications on cancer research

-
-
-
-
-

- b. Total number of publications

- c. Nominee Hirsch index

- d. Mean number of citations per article

- e. Patents societal impact

5. Summary of nomination (please in layman's terms the nominee's scientific achievements in cancer research; max 300 words)

6. Personal details and signature of nominator (Candidates are not allowed to nominate themselves)

Name:

Signature:

Date: